RFI: Vendor Questions for ARFQ DNR26*09 PRINTING, BINDING OF WONDERFUL WV MAGAZINE

Q.1. Please confirm whether the awarded vendor is responsible only for printing, binding, and delivery to JSI Mailing Services, or if the vendor is also responsible for any portion of the actual mailing or postal preparation.

A. The vendor will not be responsible for any mailing or postal preparation.

Q.2. Please confirm the basis of award. Specifically, will the award be determined solely from the hypothetical issue total on the pricing pages, or will all pricing page line items be evaluated collectively?

A. The total bid will be calculated and awarded upon the hypothetical as per Exhibit A.

Q.3. Please confirm the anticipated quantity variation assumptions for ordering under this contract. The solicitation references an estimated quantity of 15,000 copies and also notes that quantities may vary. Please advise the ordering ranges the Agency expects vendors to support.

A. The Agency cannot fully anticipate possible ranges for future needs. These amounts may increase due to a promotion that may increase quantities by 500 to 1,000 for a single issue. There may also be an increase in subscribers, which will be difficult to forecast, but not a drastic increase.

Q.4. Please confirm whether equivalent paper stocks are acceptable for the specified cover and text sheets, provided they meet or exceed the stated quality requirements, and whether paper samples are required at bid submission only when an alternate stock is proposed or in all cases.

A. Yes, samples are not required for bid submissions, only when an alternative is proposed.

Q.5. Please clarify the proofing expectations. Specifically, is the Agency expecting only online digital color proofs, and how many proof correction rounds are anticipated within the standard production schedule?

A. Digital proofs. Traditionally, no more than two rounds of edits.

Q.6. Please confirm the trigger point for the liquidated damages provision. Does the $200 per day apply until the finished magazines are delivered to JSI Mailing Services, or until the publication is entered into the mail stream?

A. When the publication is entered into the mail stream.

Q.7. Please confirm the complete list of documents and materials that must be submitted with the bid response, including whether sample magazines, paper samples, addendum acknowledgment, and any preference or disclosure forms are required at bid time.

A. The vendor must complete and submit the Exhibit A Pricing Pages at the time of bid, along with any other mandatory items as per the solicitation. All bids must be submitted electronically via WVOASIS.

The Vendor should upload with bid, copies of three (3) to five (5) magazines published within the last three (3) years where they have been the primary contractor for printing, binding, and mailing. Any proposed paper substitution must be stated in the bid. Hard copy magazine samples, paper samples or paper substitution samples must be physically provided to the Agency within 24 hours upon request by the Agency.
